DHS requests input on simplifying EVV for live-in caregivers

The Minnesota Department of Human Services (DHS) has requested feedback and suggested solutions to simplify compliance with Electronic Visit Verification (EVV) requirements for live-in caregivers. They are looking to hear from financial management services providers, caregivers, Minnesota Health Care Programs members, families and community advocates that are required to use EVV.

Sessions start as soon as 11/19/24. To view all the different sessions offered and sign up for them, click the button below.

Happy Early Thanksgiving!

If you could only have one kind of pie for the rest of time, would you rather have...

Pumpkin Pie

Apple Pie

Last month we asked if you'd rather live in space or live under the sea. The results are in... 69% said under the sea, and 31% said in space. Stay tuned for the results of the 'would you rather' next month!

Electronic Visit Verification (EVV) Listening Sessions
